DECLARATION OF

1. My name is Bob Beeman. I am 54 years old. I reside in St. Paul Minnesota.

2. I am the Director of Athletics, Hamline University.

3. I have prepared this declaration in support of the patentability of U.S. Patent No. 10/784,635.

4. I have employed JocTrac at a post season tournament because of the unique statistics that it provides.

5. Because JocTrac statistics are based on possession tracking instead of the traditional event based statistics the statistics are easier to take, immediately available, and include more information than we have ever had before. Specifically, the result of every touch for every player and immediate information about 5 man groups that played together during a game. I think JocTrac is setting new standards for basketball statistics.

Declaration in Support of
